USER GUIDES JOURNO PROFILES

Delve deeper into Journalist Profiles with a new, sleeker look... these help you gather more information about a journalist's work. View Live Content in a single tab, or search for specific keywordsacross various profile sections.

Find a Journalist

- To access a journalist's profile, you must first search for them.
- You can use 'Find it Quickly' if you know the name of the journalist you'd like to find, or use our 'Search' function to find new journalists relevant to you.

Note: Please see our 4 Ways To Search guide for guidance on Roxhill's Search function

Need a little help?

If you need further help, contact your account manager via Help&feedback and they'll get back to you as soon as possible.

Journalist information

- On every Journalist Profile, you will find a static column on the left.
- Here you will see a summary of the journalist's information, including their name, job title, publication and country, their sector, desks, and the publication's address, and more.

Quick Buttons

Download a pre-made briefing document with the journalist's information by pressing 'Briefing doc'. Briefing doc

The buttons next to it will take you to the journalist's official social media pages.

♡ 🛆 Unknown

≈ Add to Streams

∷≡ Add to Lists

In the top-right, you can take several actions:

- Favourite the journalist so they will show up in the Favourites tab of your homepage.
- Set the known GDPR status of that journalist using the 'Unknown' button.

Note" For more information on how our GDPR tool works, please take a look at our GDPR User Guide.

- Receive alerts of a journalist's activity by adding them to your streams using 'Add to Streams'.
- Add journalist to mailing lists by clicking 'Add to Lists'.

Live Content

- Scroll left and right on your trackpad or use the horizontal scroll bar to navigate and to see the full-length of this screen.
- The live content panel gives you a snapshot view of everything that the journalist has been posting.
